MOTION FOR A RESOLUTION

tabled by Mr Kenneth COLLINS

pursuant to Rule 47 of the Rules of Procedure on the freedom of speech and political activity in Argentina

The European Parliament,

- believes that the principles of free speech and the right to engage in political activity should be freely available to all,
  - aware that, in a number of countries including Argentina, these rights are being denied,
  - aware that in recent months a number of Argentinians and foreign nationals have "disappeared" and are believed to be in the custody of the Argentinian security forces,
1. Condemns the Argentinian government for its infringement of basic human rights;
  2. Calls on the Council of Ministers to exert all possible pressure on the Argentinian authorities to put an end to such restrictions on the freedom of speech and political activity.
